CHARLES R. DOUGLASS.

LITTLE UNWRITTEN HISTORY-WHAT LED TO HIS ATTACK ON GEO. T. DOWNING-HIS APPEAL TO THE EDITOR OF THE BEE NOT TO EX-POSE HIM-HIS OFFER TO PAY RE-

Charles R. Douglass, the removed exconsul to Santo Domingo, is known in this community as a man who has not the respect of the people. When Geo. Downing declared himself an indendent in the State of Rhode Island and supported the nomination and elec ion of Mr. Cleveland, and his reasons for doing many things that didn't lock right in the eyes of Mr. Douglass, he (Douglass) sent a communication, under a nomdeplume, to this office, which is now in the possession of the editor, making a severe and personal attack on Mr. Geo. T. Downing, of Rhode Island. Douglass attacked Downing's personal character as well as making an attack on his colitical standing in this country. After the publication of the attack Mr. Downing wrote to this office and demanded the author of the article under a threat of a libel suit. Charles R. Douglass got frightened and appealed to the editor of the BEE not to expose him; that he would pay for the setting up of the article and pay for the publi-cation. He was informed that his name should not be exposed, although his offer to pay was refused. If it becomes necessary the article will be reproduced as an evidence of the duplicity and demagoguery of Charles R. Douglass, who has been pretending to the people that the editor of the BEE has been making these wholesale attacks on public men. Many of Douglass' communications have been rejected because he manifest ed so much personality and prejudice towards public men. His hand is turned against every public man of note; he sees nothing good in anyone but Douglass; be knows no man whom he thinks is above him; he respects no woman who has a bright face, but can always be found in the company of persons with fair complexion.

Notwithstanding the denial of the Recorder of Deeds to the effect that he was not a candidate for a position in his office, the BEE stands ready to prove that Mr. Taylor made the statement and asserted that although he had promised the old man, he'll be d—d if he intended to give him a place."

The most interesting expose will be the attack on Richard T. Greener by Charles R. Douglass and why the at-That will appear in the next issue of the BEE.

A DEMAND FOR A COLORED

JUDGE. COLORED PERSONS SENT DOWN ON

THE MOST FLIMSY PRETEXT.

The criminal dock of the court is forever full, and colored women and men are sent to jail and the workhouse on some of the most flimsy pretext. In many instances the evidence of a police officer is given more consideration than some of the most respectable colored citizens. There is no o jection in the court sending the violators of the law to the proper place, but it does look suspicious to see that an officer or a white person's word should be given grea er consideration than a colored per-on of equal standing. The necessity of a colored judge for one of the branches of the police court is an absolute necessity. Colored people are arrested on the most flimsy pretext and convicted very often on the evidence of one officer. In the police court Tuesday morning Officer Mole arrested a white man, and he swore that the man was drunk at the time of his arrest, and had it not have been for the testimony of three other officers this innocent man would have been held. This is only one of the many cases that are tried in the police court.

On Monday morning a colored man was arrested and convicted on the evi dence of a white market-master. The white man swore that the colored man cursed and was drunk. The colored man swore that he was neither drunk nor did he swear. The officer that made the arrest said that the man made no disturbance when he was placed under arrest, but he swere going to the box. His statement was not corroborated, and notwithstanding the denial by the colored man of the charges, he was fined ten dollars. There is no reason why a colored lawyer cannot be appointed to one of the judgeship of the police

FIRING TORPEDOES.

Unsatisfactory Tests Are Made from Cruisers.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 29.—A Howell torpedo was fired from the Cincinnati's bow tube Friday in Coddington Cove. It ran along in good shape for about 400 yards, and then it disappeared. It is still out of sight. A similar fate befell the torpedo recently fired from the Detroit's bow port. Both these torpedoes had successfully passed the tests at the testing station in Tiverton, and the torpedo boat Stiletto has fired similar torpedoes and recovered them after firing without difficulty, and naval men are at a loss to understand why they have not worked well from the cruisers. The Whitehead torpedo fired from the Detroit also failed to behave as well as when fired from the torpedo boat Cushing or a stationary tube on shore, though this firing was done under the supervision of experts who have fired thousands of shots. It appears to be a question if automobile torpedoes are to be as successful when fired from ships as they have proved when used on regular torpedo boats.

TWELVE PEOPLE BURNED.

Three Others Badly Injured as the Result of a Fire in Scattle, Wash. Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.-Twelve people are dead and three others are badly injured as the result of a fire which broke out in a West street house at 1 A. M. Friday. All of the dead were burned beyond recognition. The flames broke out so suddenly and fiercely that the occupants were taken by surprise. There was a sharp ex-plosion and the flames sprang forth. There was some accountable delay in securing water, which was not done until the building was enveloped in flames. Mrs. Susan Allen threw her child out of a window to a policeman, who caught it. AN ENGINEER KILLED.

A Train Crashes Through a Burning Trustle,

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 29.-An engine and thirty freight cars crashed through a burning trest'e Friday, killing Engi-neer Gay instantly. It was on the Macon and Northern road near Godfrey. The wreckage caught fire and 200 bales of cotton were burned. The train was running at the rate of thirty miles an hour, and was rounding a curve when the engineer and fireman were suddenly confronted by the burning trestle, almost at the vehy nose of the locomotive. It was too late for the engineer to jump, and he re-versed the leved just as the engine crashed down through the burning timbers. The engineer was scalded to death. The trestle was fired by an incendiary, and the residents of the surrounding country are searching for lim, Loot the Express Car. Wagoner, I. T., Oct. 22.-The Kansas City and Memphis express, which left here at 9:30 Saturday night, was wrecked and robbed by ten of the Cook gang of white and half-breed despera-does at Correta, a blind siding five miles south of here. The train was run into a string of box cars. The robbers forced Express Messenger Ford to open the doors by perforating the side of the car with bullets. The two robbers in the express car secured all the money in the local safe, but didn't get into the through safe. Jack Mahar, advance agent for Mahar's Minstrels, was dangerously if not fatally wounded. Walter Barnes, of Van Buren, Ark., was slightly injured. Special Officers Helmick and Dickinson, of the Missouri Pacific, were on the train, also United States Deputy Marshals Brunner and Casaver, but they were covered by Winchesters in the hands of the bandits before they had time to make a move. Fully 200 shots were fired, and the cars were ridd'ed. The mail car was not molested. The loss to the express company will not exceed $500.

BLOODHOUNDS.

They Are Put on the Track of South Carolina Murderers. Orangeburg, S. C., Oct. 22.-The State bloodhounds were put on the track of the murderers of Robert C. Opes, the County Treasurer killed near here. They tracked the fugitives to where they had evidently taken a rowboat and gone down the Edesto River. Five negroes, it is reported, have been arrested on evidence not heard at the coroner's inquest and that they have all been lynched. The amount of all been lynched. The amount of money missing will hardly exceed $75. Circumstances indicate that white men did the work. The murderers missed $556 in greenbacks. If captured the assassins will probably meet a fearful death without trial.

London, Oct. 22.-The Daily News publishes this semi-official statement: A day or two after the last Cabinet Council, China informed Great Britain that she proposed to negotiate for peace on certain terms. The lines constitute an inch.

The man who edits the Colored American is Jessie Lawson, a clerk in the Interior Department; the man who is responsible for the publication of that paper is E. E. Cooper, a new adventurer from the West, who came to this city some few months ago and organized a stock company which has not as yet declared any dividends.

Mr. Cooper came to this city to run a democratic journal, and since his stay here he has been working both democrats and republicans. He has gone to republicans and represented to them that it is a republican paper, and has done the same thing with democrats. He now claims to be running a republican paper, and at the same time he is telling democratic members of Congress that his paper is a democratic sheet. He is too cow- the colored man. ardly to make an open fight against Taylor, but he resorts to subterfuges and falsehoods to make out a case.

There is no reason that can be offered which will prevent the present or the next administration from appointing a colored lawyer one of the judges of

MR. FORTUNE WORRIED.

Mr. T. Thomas Fortune, editor of the New York Age, wants the recorder of deeds to explain. For the benefit of Mr. Fortune, the BEE begs leave to inform him that Mr. Jessie Lawson, the putative editor of the Colored Ameri-can, has mis-stated facts: Be quiet friend Fortune. Mr. Taylor failed to provide for Miss Wells in his office at your suggestion, but found it more convenient to provide for some one else.

THE MINISTRY.

The ministry of this city as well as in every other city is more or less reaching after high things. There is not a minister in this city but what wants a big church, well furnished and artistically arranged. It Mr. Jesse Lawson would devote more time to his clerical work in the Pension Office and less to the husiness end of the BEE he would be doing his duty. If Mr. Lawson wants to know what the opinion of the people has been of him and is now the BEE will take great pleasure in telling.

Calvin Chase, the colored lawyer, has a very pleasant but rather too sonorous a voice for a courtroom. Yeste day he acted as attorney for an old colored min, Benjamin Wallace, who was ac-cused of using profane language to an aged market woman because she re-fused to let him "lead her horse to water." J. E. Burns, the market master, caused his arrest, and Officer Cooney took him before Judge-Kimball. When Mr. Burns was testifying Lawyer Chase began to question him. The witness took offense at the lawyer's manner and was answering af er his own way when Mr. Chase interrupted loudly with Now, don't talk so fast.'

Some judges are always so afraid that the colored attorney will not respect the dignity of the court that they are forever reminded of it, especially is this the characteristic of Republican judges appointed by the last administration.

A well bred person should not address another by his Christian name in the presence of others even though the acquaintance may be of long standing.

A simple bow is all sufficient when come one is introduced to you; an inquiry after your health and "pleased to meet you," is a breach of etiquette.

If you associate with people who us slang you are very apt to fall in the same bad habit Remember the old adage, "constant association begats a simulation"

There is no harm in a married man offering his arm to a lady in the eve ning, to the contrary it is quite proper It is not necessary for a young lady to speak to a man simply because she met him in Snnday school or at his place of business. It is not wise to affect a love for your mother-in-law that you do not feel. All that is necessary is to treat her with common politeness. A man not younger than twenty-five should marry a girl of nineteen or else he would not be able to advise or control her. Not that men are suppose to be the rulers of their wives but the man should always be the older. It is very improper for a man to smoke in the presence of a lady, and certainly no gentleman would walk on the street with a lady with a cigar in his mouth. People of good breeding do not per-mit themselves to overlook those to whom courtesies are due. If persons conduct themselves cor-rectly as ladies and gentlemen should they will receive all due respect.

The best way for a man to show his sincere love for a woman is to ask her to become his wife, and then he will see exactly how much she cares for him. It is certainly improper for a young man and woman to go shopping to-gether before they are married even though they may be engaged.

Do not marry a poor, struggling man No man in this age has a right to ask woman to share the vgly limitations

VON CAPRIVI RESIGNS.

A Great Stir in Germany Over This Action-Eulenberg Also Resigns.

Berlin, Oct. 29.—A great stir was caused in well-informed quarters here Friday afternoon by the receipt of a telegram from Cologne which stated that Chancellor von Caprivi and Count Botho Zu Eulenberg, President of the Prussian Council of Ministers, had rerighted. There has been considerable tension between the Chancellor and Count Zu Eulenberg owing to the for-mer's views in regard to the measures to be submitted to the Reichstag for the repression of Socialists. The Chancellor is in favor of pursuing a moderate policy, while Count Zu Eulenberg believes in the adoption of radical measures.

It is officially announced that the resignation of Count Botho Zu Eulenberg has been accepted.
